Explanation:

The ANZ Sail Fiji / RAYC Race Committee has today (Tuesday 31 May), received the following written advice from Yachting New Zealand.

To the Race Committee, RAYC

In light of recent reviews and discussions regarding PHRF handicaps for the Fiji Race, Yachting New Zealand recommends the event use PHRF Passage Current TCF for its primary PHRF scoring.

This recommendation arises after much consideration, including the recognition that the Base TCF is a new concept only just now released on new certificates and that race competitors therefore have had the expectation of scoring based on what is now the 'Current TCF' which includes a performance factor.

Along with our recommendation, we request the Club also give PHRF competitors a further score using PHRF Passage Base TCF. Yachting New Zealand will provide a prize to the winner under this additional result. It is our hope that this approach will serve as a useful introduction to the Base TCF and allow PHRF competitors and Organising Authorities to understand its purpose.
